Invite you to the 10th Annual Trade Panel discussion on

World of Regions or Bipolar World?

Is There Still Enough Space for Global Trade?

Tuesday, April 13, 2010

4:00—6:00 p.m.

Slowinski Courtroom

* * *

Moderator:

PATRICK A. MULLOY

U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission

Panelists:

Maura Jeffords, Diageo

Matthew Nicely, Thompson Hine LLP

Morton Sklar, Founding Executive Director Emeritus (retired) Human Rights USA, and Lead Counsel in Yahoo!

♦ Is the World Really Becoming Bipolar?

♦ China and the U.S.---Trading Partners or Adversaries?

♦ Global Economic Integration---Is it possible in the Bipolar World?

♦ RMB v. Dollar. Is the dollar still the World’s Major International Currency?

♦ Should we Resurrect the Doha Development Agenda (DDA): Who Really Cares?

♦ Toward Multi-Polar World---The Prospects for Trans-Pacific Partnership.

♦ Internet Freedom? Is China really “online”?

♦ U.S. safeguard actions against China.