We all believe we know what insider trading looks like. But, in fact, it is not always simple to describe the elements. In order to successfully prosecute insider trading, it is necessary to prove a knowing breach of a fiduciary duty. The answers are not always certain as to when that duty exists and whether the breach was "knowing."

Please contact the Office of Institutes and Special Programs at 202-319-6081 at least one week prior to the event to request disability accommodations. In all situations, a good faith effort (up until the time of the event) will be made to provide accommodations.
