Columbus School of Law

MOCK INTERVIEW PROGRAM

Wednesday, August 10, 2011

SPONSORED BY THE OFFICE OF CAREER and PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (OCPD)

Interviewers from various organizations, such as law firms, government agencies, and public interest organizations will conduct practice interviews with students and offer valuable tips.

Mock interviews will take place in the offices of the interviewers, not here on campus. If you cannot participate in the program, please set up a mock interview with an OCPD Career Advisor ASAP!!

TO PARTICIPATE, YOU MUST:

SIGN UP on Symplicity July 25 through August 4 @ noon. Upload a copy of your resume on Symplicity and select a CUA Alum and a timeslot. Résumés will be forwarded to the interviewer(s) a few days before your Mock Interview; therefore, without a résumé you cannot participate. Evening students, slots available 5pm to 7pm.

* Whom to Choose: Try to select an interviewer based upon your practice area or legal environment interest, i.e., communications, energy law and law firm or government agency. If you do not find a match with your career goals, sign up anyway – the interview experience is invaluable!

* Format: Mock Interview Sessions are for 30-minutes (20-minutes of mock interview and 10-minutes of feedback).

* Procedure: You will receive, via e-mail, a confirmation of your appointment, along with the address and other helpful information. Dress in Professional Attire. Please arrive on time and take a copy of your résumé to the interview.

Once you sign up for an interview, you MUST show up!

No shows are unprofessional and are not permitted. If you fail to attend a mock interview for which you signed up, your fall recruiting program privileges may be revoked.

Remember to attend OCPD' Interviewing Tips Program in August.
