1 Limited enrollment course.

2 This course fulfills the Transition to Practice graduation requirement.

3 This course is limited to 3rd year or 4th year students.

4 If this course is taken during a student's 3rd year or 4th year, then this course satisfies the Transition to Practice graduation requirement.

5 Year-long course; must be taken for two semesters in order to receive credit.

Spring 2017 Upper Divisions Courses

- 6 Prerequisites are listed in the Announcements.
- 7 Required of all second year evening students.
- 8 Limited to LPP certificate students graduating in May 2017; other upper-class students may enroll on a space available basis during the add/drop period.
- 9 Students may choose this course for 2 or 3 credits. Students choosing 3 credits will write a qualifying course paper.
- 10 Students who have previously taken the Immigration Law and Policy course are eligible to take Immigration Law: Employment, Family & Naturalization.
- 11 The Agency Law course will be counted as fulfilling one of the six bar staple course requirements (just as Agency & Partnership will).
- 12 Exam/paper option, at option of student. Qualifying course paper.
- 13 Qualifying course paper.
- 14 Approved topic registration for Directed Research must be submitted to the Academic Dean's office, Room 343, no later than the last day of the add/drop period.
- 15 Students seeking to participate in more than one clinical program per semester must have the permission of Professor Martin, the Director of Experiential Education. Some of these clinical offerings are only possible for students who can participate during the day.
- 16 Open only to selected students.
- 17 Open only to selected students. A pre-application is required. For more information, please contact the following individuals: for the CCLS clinics - Prof. Paul Kurth, CCLS Managing Attorney; for the Innocence Project Clinic & Clemency Project - Prof. Sandy Ogilvy; for the Criminal Prosecution clinic, Criminal Defense Clinic, or D.C. LSIC - Prof. Lisa Martin; for the S.E.C. Student Honors Program - Prof. David Lipton.
- 18 Some writing in this course may be used to satisfy one or more of the three products required for the Applied Legal Writing Portfolio option of the upper-level writing requirement.
- 19 Students who have previously taken the National Security Law and Policy course cannot also take the Foreign Relations and National Security Law class.
- 20 Enrollment in this course is limited to students who have satisfactorily completed a minimum of six credits of CCLS: Civil Practice Clinic. Registration in this course requires prior approval of Professors Mullen or Brustin.
- 21 Enrollment in this course is limited to students who have satisfactorily completed a minimum of six credits of CCLS: Families & the Law Clinic. Registration in this course requires prior approval of Professors Klein or Martin.
- 22 This course is restricted to Master of Legal Studies students in their final semester.
- 23 Please see the Experiential Education Coordinator (Room 343) or Professor Lipton for details regarding application deadlines. Meets at S.E.C.

Spring 2017 Upper Divisions Courses

S.E.C. classroom lectures are mandatory for any first time Honors Program participant who has not previously taken Becoming a Lawyer. The S.E.C. will notify students of the schedule of these lectures.

- 24 This course will meet five times over the course of the Spring 2017 semester (January 14 & 28, February 11 & 25, March 18).
- 25 Preference will be given to evening division students.
- 26 Participants who have completed Evidence, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, and Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process and a minimum of 41 credit hours may be certified under the Student Practice Rule of the District of Columbia to represent clients in court. Upper-class students who do not meet the certification requirements can still take this course.
- 27 Enrolled students are expected to spend a minimum of 20 hours weekly on clinic work, including instructional time.
- 28 This course will meet for only the second half of the semester.
- 29 This course will meet for only the first half of the semester.
- 30 This course is graded on a pass/fail basis.
- 31 Participants must be eligible for certification under the Maryland Student Practice rule. Please see Professor Martin for details.
- 32 With faculty permission, students may opt to take this course pass/fail. The selection of this option must be made by the end of the add/drop period. Please e-mail the registrar to select this option; failure to exercise an option by the deadline will result in default to a letter grade.
- 33 Evening students may enroll on a space available basis. Please see the appropriate instructor(s) for approval.
- 34 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Writing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 35 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Editing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 36 Successful completion of this course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 37 Limited to 5 students. This class meets at George Washington University. Students who are registered in the course must contact Professor Creighton (andrewcreighton@me.com) prior to the first class meeting. The first class meeting will be announced via e-mail.
- 38 Directed Research may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements. It is a two-credit course that may be completed in one or two semesters, at the option of the instructor.
- 39 Prerequisites: Constitutional Law I and Constitutional Law II (or 5 credit Con. Law, for students who began program prior to Fall 2013).
- 40 Students who enroll in either the Families and the Law Clinic or Civil Practice Clinic should keep their Thursdays clear for the scheduling of court hearings and other clinic-related activities.

Spring 2017 Upper Divisions Courses

- 41 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their third year. Evening students may take the class during their third or fourth year.
- 42 This course is offered as a two-credit graded seminar. All students who enroll in this course must also enroll in Legal Externship to obtain two or three credits for fieldwork. Students who are enrolling in their first externship for credit must enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars during the same semester as the fieldwork.
- 43 Students enrolling in their first externship should register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship and must also enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars. Students in their second or greater externship should only register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship. Approval of the externship, by the Director of Experiential Education, is required prior to registration in Cardinal Station.
- 44 This course fulfills the Professional Skills requirement.
- 45 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their second year. Evening students may take this class in their third year. Students taking Becoming a Public Policy Lawyer must also register for a Legal Externship for two or three credits or for one of the live-client clinical courses (Families and the Law Clinic, Civil Practice Clinic, Advocacy for the Elderly Clinic, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Innocence Project Clinic and Clemency Project or Criminal Prosecution Clinic).
- 46 This course can fulfill either one of the two upper-division writing requirements or the Professional Skills requirement, but may not be used to satisfy both.
- 47 Students taking this course cannot also take the Maryland Law Survey course.
- 48 Limited to an aggregate total of 8 students in all sections of CCLS: Low Income Tax Clinic
- 49 Students taking this course cannot also take the Virginia Bar Preparation course.
- 50 Please see course description for further details regarding this optional additional credit.
- 51 For non-Securities program students, this is an exam course. For those students, this course does not satisfy the upper-level writing requirement. Only students in the Securities Institute or concentration may be given a portfolio writing option. Those selecting the writing option would also take the exam, but it would count proportionally less toward the final grade.
- 52 Prerequisite: Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process. Recommended for students to have completed, or take concurrently, the Criminal Procedure: Post Investigative Process course.
- 53 Students taking this course cannot also take the Virginia Law Survey course.
- 54 Students must be eligible under the Virginia Student Practice rule. Please see Professor Martin for details.
- 55 For students required to take a bar preparation course, the Multistate Performance Test Preparation course does not meet this requirement. You must take either the Applied Legal Studies class, the Maryland Law Survey class or the Virginia Law Survey class.
- 56 For students in their second or greater for-credit externship, please be prepared to meet Jill Frost for your Supervised Fieldwork class on either Wednesdays from 5:30-6:10 p.m. or Thursdays from 5:45-6:30 p.m.
