Spring 2018 Upper Divisions Courses

- 20 Enrollment in this course is limited to students who have satisfactorily completed a minimum of six credits of CCLS: Civil Practice Clinic. Registration in this course requires prior approval of Professor Brustin.
- 21 Enrollment in this course is limited to students who have satisfactorily completed a minimum of six credits of CCLS: Families & the Law Clinic. Registration in this course requires prior approval of Professor Klein.
- 22 This course is restricted to Master of Legal Studies students in their final semester.
- 23 Please see the Experiential Education Director (Clinic offices) or Professor Lipton for details regarding application deadlines. Meets at S.E.C. S.E.C. classroom lectures are mandatory for any first time Honors Program participant. The S.E.C. will notify students of the schedule of these lectures. Students are also required to meet with Jill Frost twice during the course of the semester.
- 24 This course will meet five times over the course of the Spring 2018 semester (January 13 and 27, February 10 and 24, and March 17).
- 25 Preference will be given to evening division students.
- 26 Participants who have completed Evidence, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, and Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process and a minimum of 41 credit hours may be certified under the Student Practice Rule of the District of Columbia to represent clients in court. Upper-class students who do not meet the certification requirements can still take this course.
- 27 Enrolled students are expected to spend a minimum of 20 hours weekly on clinic work, including instructional time.
- 28 This course will meet for only the second half of the semester.
- 29 This course will meet for only the first half of the semester.
- 30 This course is graded on a pass/fail basis.
- 31 Participants must be eligible for certification under the Maryland Student Practice rule. Please see Experiential Learning Director for details.
- 32 With faculty permission, students may opt to take this course pass/fail. The selection of this option must be made by the end of the add/drop period. Please e-mail the registrar to select this option; failure to exercise an option by the deadline will result in default to a letter grade.
- 33 Evening students may enroll on a space available basis. Please see the appropriate instructor(s) for approval.
- 34 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Writing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 35 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Editing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 36 Successful completion of this course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 37 Limited to 5 students. This class meets at George Washington University. Students who are registered in the course must contact Professor Creighton (andrewcreighton@me.com) prior to the first class meeting. The first class meeting will be announced via e-mail.

Spring 2018 Upper Divisions Courses

- 38 Directed Research may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements. It is a two-credit course that may be completed in one or two semesters, at the option of the instructor.
- 39 Prerequisites: Constitutional Law I and Constitutional Law II.
- 40 Students who enroll in either the Families and the Law Clinic or Civil Practice Clinic should keep their Thursdays clear for the scheduling of court hearings and other clinic-related activities.
- 41 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their third year. Evening students may take the class during their third or fourth year.
- 42 This course is offered as a two-credit graded seminar. All students who enroll in this course must also enroll in Legal Externship to obtain two or three credits for fieldwork. Students who are enrolling in their first externship for credit must enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars during the same semester as the fieldwork.
- 43 This section is for students enrolling in their first externship. Students should register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship and must also enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the online Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.
- 44 This course fulfills the Professional Skills requirement or a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.
- 45 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their second year. Evening students may take this class in their third year. Students taking Becoming a Public Policy Lawyer must also register for a Legal Externship for two or three credits or for one of the live-client clinical courses (Families and the Law Clinic, Civil Practice Clinic, Advocacy for the Elderly Clinic, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Innocence Project Clinic and Clemency Project or Criminal Prosecution Clinic).
- 46 This course can fulfill either one of the two upper-division writing requirements or the Professional Skills requirement, but may not be used to satisfy both. This course can fulfill one of the two upper-division writing requirements and a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.
- 47 Students taking this course cannot also take the Maryland Law Survey course.
- 48 Limited to an aggregate total of 8 students in all sections of CCLS: Low Income Tax Clinic
- 49 Students taking this course cannot also take the Virginia Bar Preparation course.
- 50 Please see course description for further details regarding this optional additional credit.
- 51 For non-Securities program students, this is an exam course. For those students, this course does not satisfy the upper-level writing requirement. Only students in the Securities Institute or concentration may be given a portfolio writing option. Those selecting the writing option would also take the exam, but it would count proportionally less toward the final grade.
- 52 Prerequisite: Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process. Recommended for students to have completed, or take concurrently, the Criminal Procedure: Post Investigative Process course.

Spring 2018 Upper Divisions Courses

- 53 Students taking this course cannot also take the Virginia Law Survey course.
- 54 Students must be eligible under the Virginia Student Practice rule. Please see Professor Martin for details.
- 55 For students required to take a bar preparation course, the Multistate Performance Test Preparation course does not meet this requirement. You must take either the Applied Legal Studies class.
- 56 This section is for students in their second or greater for-credit externship. Students in this section do not register for Becoming a Lawyer, however, they are required to meet with Jill Frost twice during the semester. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.
- 57 Students will arrange with Professor Foley in regard to course meeting days and times.
- 58 This course will fulfill the transition-to-practice requirement if taken in a student's third or fourth year and if taken in conjunction with Immigration Law: Deportation & Asylum.
