Receive intensive training in the global aspects of modern trade and business law, as well as the changing dynamics of Central European politics and law.

Experience the history and culture of the city that “ranks among the great artistic and cultural complexes of highest value in Europe.”

Highlights

- Live and work with Polish students less than one block from historic Jagiellonian University.
- Meet distinguished guest speakers; previous speakers have included former Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court Sandra Day O’Connor and former U.S. Secretary of Veterans Affairs Edward Derwinski.
- Participate in planned visits to historic castles and monuments in Cracow and the countryside of Poland.

Classes

- Comparative and International Trade
- Law of the European Union
- International Business Transactions
- International Arbitration and Litigation
- International Securities Regulations
- Introduction to the American Legal System

For more information
Phone: 202-319-6081
Web site: http://law.edu
E-mail: poland@law.edu

Sponsors:
The Kosciuszko Foundation
Embassy of the Republic of Poland
The Boeing Company
The Catholic University of America
Educational Enterprise Foundation of Lodz
GE Bank Mieszkańcowski S.A.
National Bank of Poland
U.S. Consulate in Cracow, Poland
University of Bialystok
University of Lodz
University of Poznan
University of Torun
University of Wroclaw

CRACOW, POLAND
JUNE 14–JULY 26

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA
Columbus School of Law

JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY

2008 International Business and Trade Summer Law Program
Cracow, Poland: June 14–July 26
17TH ANNIVERSARY
The Catholic University of America
International Business and Trade Summer Law Program
in Cracow, Poland: June 14–July 26, 2008

CULTURAL AND PROFESSIONAL EXCHANGE—
Program Highlights

Experience firsthand a country in transition; Poland joined the European Union in 2004.

Receive practical and theoretical training in global aspects of modern trade, business regulations and other substantive areas of law.

Interact with the best Polish law students and with American students from diverse schools and backgrounds.

Join more than 600 well-trained and educated alumni who are becoming future leaders of democratic Poland and the United States.

Create an international network of colleagues and resources through dialogue among faculty, program guests and lecturers, and fellow students.

Participate in new seminar courses developed each year for the summer law program and taught at the historic Larisch Palace of the Jagiellonian University.

Obtain academic credit from The Catholic University of America for courses in the Cracow summer law program, fully accredited by the American Bar Association.

Distinguished Former Guest Speakers

Sandra Day O’Connor, former associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court
Edward Werderinski, former U.S. secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs
Stanley Gloz, former vice president, Central Europe, Boeing Aerospace Poland
Kazimierz Jachwinski, justice of the Supreme Court of Poland
Roman Rewald, chairman of the American Chamber of Commerce in Poland and partner at the Warsaw branch of the law firm of Weil, Gotshal and Manges
Wojciech Katter, former vice minister of the economy of the Republic of Poland
Radosław Sikorski, minister of foreign affairs of the Republic of Poland
Marian Grzybowski, justice of the Constitutional Tribunal in Warsaw
Jerzy Pruski, first vice president, The National Bank of Poland
Władysław Cieśniewicz, senator and former prime minister of the Republic of Poland

Six-week Courses (3 credit hours)
Comparative and International Trade
Professor Michal Chorosnicki, Jagiellonian University
Professor Rett Ludwikowski, The Catholic University of America

Law of the European Union
Professor Rett Ludwikowski, The Catholic University of America

Three-week Courses (2 credit hours)
International Arbitration andLitigation
Professor Peter (Bo) Rutledge, The Catholic University of America

International Business Transactions
Professor Ewa Baginska, University of Warwick

International Securities Regulation
Professor David Lipton, The Catholic University of America
Professor Isabella Krasnicka, Jagiellonian University

Introduction to the American Legal System
Professor Włodzimierz Cimoszewicz, University of Bialystok

Details are available online at http://law.edu.

CONTACT INFORMATION
Constantia Dedoulis, director
The Catholic University of America
Columbus School of Law
Office of Institutes and Special Programs
Washington, DC 20064
Phone: 202-319-6081
Fax: 202-319-4004
E-mail: Poland@law.edu
Web site: http://law.edu

FINANCIAL AID

The summer program is not in a position to provide direct financial assistance to program students; however, the CU A law school Office of Financial Aid will process loans or other benefits to which students might be entitled. Questions concerning financial aid should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid at 202-319-5143. Those students attending from other institutions are encouraged to work directly with their home institution using consortium agreements regarding their financial aid opportunities. Loan assistance can usually be obtained for the full cost of the program, including living expenses and transportation.

APPLICATION PROCESS

The program is open to U.S., Canadian and European law students who are currently enrolled at an accredited law school; are in good standing with their law school; and who will have completed one year of academic work prior to June 1, 2008. Applicants should determine in advance the home institution’s policy regarding the transfer of credits.

Graduates of accredited law schools may be eligible to participate in the program but will not earn academic credit.

Polish students: Please direct all inquiries to Prof. dr Michal Chorosnicki at chornich@yahoo.com.

U.S. and Canadian applicants only: Please refer to the dates below for program deadlines. Students are encouraged to apply early as the program fills quickly.

March 7
Completed application form and course selection with nonrefundable $50 application fee. Applications will not be considered complete until the application fee is received. (Application form is available online at http://law.edu.)

$500 deposit, credited toward the final bill for all students accepted to the program. This deposit will guarantee your space in the program.

Letter from the applicant’s law school’s academic dean stating that the student will have completed one year of academic work prior to June 1, 2008, is in good standing, and has permission to enroll in the 2008 International Business and Trade Summer Law Program in Cracow. Also please indicate any disabilities for which the student receives special accommodations.

Student Financial Aid: American passport holders do not need visas to enter Poland.

All American students must obtain an American passport holder visa (students must apply at least three months prior to arrival in Poland for their visa to be processed).

The Bratniak is not accessible to persons with disabilities.

Polish students are considered to be Polish citizens.

The Catholic University of America
INP’s SM
ul. Jabłonowskich 5
31-114, Kraków, Poland
chornich@yahoo.com

CONTACT INFORMATION
Constantia Dedoulis, directora
The Catholic University of America
Columbus School of Law
Office of Institutes and Special Programs
Washington, DC 20064
Phone: 202-319-6081
Fax: 202-319-4004
E-mail: Poland@law.edu
Web site: http://law.edu

FINANCIAL AID

The summer program is not in a position to provide direct financial assistance to program students; however, the CU A law school Office of Financial Aid will process loans or other benefits to which students might be entitled. Questions concerning financial aid should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid at 202-319-5143. Those students attending from other institutions are encouraged to work directly with their home institution using consortium agreements regarding their financial aid opportunities. Loan assistance can usually be obtained for the full cost of the program, including living expenses and transportation.

APPLICATION PROCESS

The program is open to U.S., Canadian and European law students who are currently enrolled at an accredited law school; are in good standing with their law school; and who will have completed one year of academic work prior to June 1, 2008. Applicants should determine in advance the home institution’s policy regarding the transfer of credits.

Graduates of accredited law schools may be eligible to participate in the program but will not earn academic credit.

Polish students: Please direct all inquiries to Prof. dr Michal Chorosnicki at chornich@yahoo.com.

U.S. and Canadian applicants only: Please refer to the dates below for program deadlines. Students are encouraged to apply early as the program fills quickly.

FOR U.S., CANADIAN, AND EUROPEAN LAW STUDENTS

March 7
Completed application form and course selection with nonrefundable $50 application fee. Applications will not be considered complete until the application fee is received. (Application form is available online at http://law.edu.)

$500 deposit, credited toward the final bill for all students accepted to the program. This deposit will guarantee your space in the program.

Letter from the applicant’s law school’s academic dean stating that the student will have completed one year of academic work prior to June 1, 2008, is in good standing, and has permission to enroll in the 2008 International Business and Trade Summer Law Program in Cracow. Also please indicate any disabilities for which the student receives special accommodations.

FINANCIAL AID

The summer program is not in a position to provide direct financial assistance to program students; however, the CU A law school Office of Financial Aid will process loans or other benefits to which students might be entitled. Questions concerning financial aid should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid at 202-319-5143. Those students attending from other institutions are encouraged to work directly with their home institution using consortium agreements regarding their financial aid opportunities. Loan assistance can usually be obtained for the full cost of the program, including living expenses and transportation.

APPLICATION PROCESS

The program is open to U.S., Canadian and European law students who are currently enrolled at an accredited law school; are in good standing with their law school; and who will have completed one year of academic work prior to June 1, 2008. Applicants should determine in advance the home institution’s policy regarding the transfer of credits.

Graduates of accredited law schools may be eligible to participate in the program but will not earn academic credit.

Polish students: Please direct all inquiries to Prof. dr Michal Chorosnicki at chornich@yahoo.com.

U.S. and Canadian applicants only: Please refer to the dates below for program deadlines. Students are encouraged to apply early as the program fills quickly.

FOR U.S., CANADIAN, AND EUROPEAN LAW STUDENTS

March 7
Completed application form and course selection with nonrefundable $50 application fee. Applications will not be considered complete until the application fee is received. (Application form is available online at http://law.edu.)

$500 deposit, credited toward the final bill for all students accepted to the program. This deposit will guarantee your space in the program.

Letter from the applicant’s law school’s academic dean stating that the student will have completed one year of academic work prior to June 1, 2008, is in good standing, and has permission to enroll in the 2008 International Business and Trade Summer Law Program in Cracow. Also please indicate any disabilities for which the student receives special accommodations.

FINANCIAL AID

The summer program is not in a position to provide direct financial assistance to program students; however, the CU A law school Office of Financial Aid will process loans or other benefits to which students might be entitled. Questions concerning financial aid should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid at 202-319-5143. Those students attending from other institutions are encouraged to work directly with their home institution using consortium agreements regarding their financial aid opportunities. Loan assistance can usually be obtained for the full cost of the program, including living expenses and transportation.