Invite you to the 8th Annual Trade Panel discussion on

“Trading Without ‘Fast Track’ Negotiating Authority: Unresolved American Problems and New Developments in the Trading World”

Tuesday, April 22, 2008
4:00 - 6:00 p.m.
Slowinski Courtroom

Moderator:
PATRICK A. MULLOY
Commissioner
U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission

Panelists:
GEORGE GARVEY
Vice-Provost and Dean for Graduate Studies, CUA

DEVTA OHRI
International Trade Administration
U.S. Department of Commerce

DAN IKENSON
Center for Trade Policy Studies
Cato Institute

KIRSTEN HOFFSTEDT KEFFE
International Trade and Customs Practice
Thompson Hine LLP

- Introduction: Negotiating new deals and resolving old problems.
- Chinese subsidies and the U.S. countervailing measures. Emerging new patterns in trading with non-market economies?
- U.S. antidumping procedures. Did we resolve the problem with “zeroing”? 
- New trends in the EU energy policy. Emission tariffs on energy-intensive imports and their implications for the U.S. trade.

Please R.S.V.P. by Monday, April 14 to Margaret Pooley at pooley@law.edu