Dodd Frank: What was intended; How are we doing?

Christy L. Romero
Acting Special Inspector General, SIGTARP

Monday, October 3, 2011
5:15 p.m.
Walter A. Slowinski Court Room
Columbus School of Law
Conveniently located one block from the Brookland-CUA Metro Stop on the Red Line
Light reception to follow

Christy L. Romero is the Acting Special Inspector General at SIGTARP.

Ms. Romero became the Acting SIGTARP on March 31, 2011, after serving for nearly two years as SIGTARP’s Deputy Special Inspector General and Chief of Staff. Ms. Romero leads SIGTARP’s staff of Federal agents, attorneys, investigators, and auditors investigating fraud, waste, and abuse related to TARP programs and providing oversight of those programs to protect Treasury’s investments in more than 700 financial institutions, the markets for asset-backed securities, the auto industry, and housing programs.

She came to SIGTARP from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission where she served as an attorney in the Division of Enforcement investigating financial fraud, insider trading, abusive short selling by hedge funds, market manipulation, and violations of foreign bribery laws. From December 2007 through August 2009, Ms. Romero served as counsel to SEC Chairman Mary Schapiro and former Chairman Christopher Cox.

Prior to joining the SEC, Ms. Romero served as counsel in the Washington, D.C., office of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld. Ms. Romero clerked for the Honorable Robert C. Jones, United States District Judge, District of Nevada, and is a cum laude graduate of Brigham Young University Law School.

Sponsored by the Securities Law Program and the Securities Law Students Association