The Republican National Lawyers Association cordially invites you to an event honoring J.C. Boggs as the Republican Lawyer of the Year 2012.

October 10, 2012
6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
The Capitol Hill Club
300 First Street, SE
Washington, D.C. 20003

Ticket Options:

Benefactor: $5,000
Chair: $2,500
Host: $1,000

Team Supporter: $200 (Non-RNLA Members receive one year of RNLA membership)
Supporter: $150 (Basic Ticket Price)

Please RSVP by e-mailing 2012lawyeroftheyear@republicanlawyer.net or by registering on the events page of www.rnla.org.
The Board of Governors of the Republican National Lawyers Association is pleased to announce the selection of J. Caleb Boggs III (“J.C.”) as the 2012 Republican Lawyer of the Year. This award recognizes lawyers for outstanding professional accomplishments and years of dedicated service to the Republican Party and its ideals.

A partner in the Government Advocacy and Public Policy practice group at King & Spalding, J.C.’s extensive experience and effective representation of clients before the legislative and executive branches have earned him recognition as a leader in government relations law. Chambers USA has named him "one of the most proficient attorneys on the scene."

In 2009, President George W. Bush appointed J.C. to a six-year term as representative to the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes, an agency of the World Bank and leading international arbitration institution devoted to investor-State dispute settlement. He also served as counsel to U.S. Senator William V. Roth, Jr. on the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs and the Committee on Governmental Affairs, including the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations.

An integral component of a successful public policy practice is personal relationships; and by virtue of his years of experience as a trusted advisor on Capitol Hill and in private practice, J.C. has developed extensive legislative and executive branch contacts.

In addition to his successful public policy practice, J.C. has served on numerous non-profit boards, including that of his high school, Kimball Union Academy, where he was Board Secretary and Chairman of the Committee on Trustees. In 2010, he established the Boggs Scholarship for Public Service at the University of Delaware in honor of his grandfather and namesake, former Governor of Delaware and U.S. Senator, J. Caleb Boggs.

A past-President of the Republican National Lawyers Association, J.C. remains an active member of its Board of Governors. He chaired the National Policy Conference in 2011 and is a frequent participant at the RNLA’s National Election Law Seminar. J.C. also serves on the National Finance Committee of the Republican Governors Association, and regularly advises candidates for state and federal elective office. He was a volunteer lawyer for Bush-Cheney in 2000 and 2004, and in 2008, served as chief election day liaison to the McCain-Palin campaign in the State of Wisconsin.