Friendship with Jesus and Each Other

delivered by

Monsignor Peter Vaghi
Pastor, Church of the Holy Flower and Chaplain, John Carroll Society

Monsignor Vaghi attended Gonzaga College High School; Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass.; the University of Salzburg, Austria, where he studied as a Fulbright Scholar; and the University of Virginia School of Law, Charlottesville. Prior to his seminary formation at the Pontifical North American College in Rome and his studies at the Roman Gregorian University, he practiced law for a number of years in Washington, D.C., where he remains a member of the Virginia State Bar and the District of Columbia Bar.

Ordained in 1985, he was appointed associate pastor of St. Ann's in Washington, D.C. He was later appointed associate pastor of St. Patrick's in Washington, D.C., and became pastor there in 1995, the same year he was named a monsignor.

Monsignor Vaghi, was appointed pastor of the Church of the Little Flower in 2004.

Monsignor Vaghi serves as chaplain of the John Carroll Society, a group of professional men and women in service of the Archbishop of Washington. Additionally, Monsignor Vaghi gives monthly theological reflections and has organized and led 20 religious pilgrimages to holy places throughout the world.

He has written a number of articles for America, Priest and Our Sunday Visitor. He has also contributed to two collections of writings on priestly spirituality: Behold Your Mother and Born of the Eucharist.
