

Hi! My name is Sara Rahmjoo and I would like to be your 1E social chair!

I understand many of us have our own personal and professional obligations, but we will all be going through the next 4 years of our lives together. I come from a big family and the way I see it, our 1E class is also going to be our family. I want to help us not just get to know each other and go to happy hours together, but also be able to share parts of our lives with each other, such as our birthdays, holidays, cultures, work promotions, etc.

I'm of Persian descent, so I love eating, drinking, and will take any excuse to celebrate anything. Although I may have some ideas on how to bring our class closer together and plan events that we might all enjoy, I also want to incorporate YOUR ideas. So, I'll be holding weekly "office hours" to hear you out. Whether you want to suggest a social activity or have a question or concern regarding the 1E class; I'm here for you and I'm here to help.

Some of my ideas include:

- Happy hours (obviously)
- Outdoor group fitness activities (hikes, outdoor yoga, etc)
- Celebrating birthdays once a month!
- Holiday potlucks!

But, those are just my ideas and I want to hear what you'd want to do! I've really enjoyed being part of our 1E class so far and I would love to have a position impact on our group by helping plan activities for us!

As the new 1E class, it's up to us to set the (bar) to show everyone that law school can be fun! I don't mean to (court) you, but I hope my social ideas (appeal) to you!
