Based in Washington, D.C., Julien Bourgeois joined Dechert in 1999. Julien focuses on the asset management industry, advising U.S. registered investment companies and their directors, as well as their investment advisers and other service providers, on regulatory, compliance, governance and enforcement matters. As a general matter, Julien enjoys working on complex projects involving multidisciplinary advice. A native of France, he is also uniquely positioned to represent global asset management groups on U.S. matters that apply to them.

Julien heads Dechert's ESG task force and frequently speaks and advises clients on this developing area. Julien is a frequent speaker at conferences in the United States and abroad and the author of numerous publications for the asset management industry.
