

Brian McGrady is Director and Associate General Counsel at New York Life. His practice focuses on legal and regulatory matters related to investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Prior to joining New York Life, he was an associate at Dechert LLP. While at Dechert, Brian advised clients on the development, regulation, sale and administration of a variety of investment products, including open-end and closed-end mutual funds, money market funds, and variable and fixed life insurance and annuity products. Prior to joining Dechert, he worked as an associate principal examiner for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. He also worked in the compliance department of two broker-dealers where he was responsible for supervising market regulation matters, including trade reporting and best execution. Brian earned his B.A. from Montclair State University and J.D. from George Washington University Law School.
