

Jessica Merino

Jessica Merino is a third year law student at the Catholic University of America Columbus School of Law. She has a keen interest in securities law and is working towards earning a certificate in the Securities Law Program. Jessica has contributed to the Catholic University Law Review as a Staff Editor, and currently serves as the President of the Latin American Law Student Association. She has previously interned for Chief Judge Anna Blackburne-Rigsby at the D.C. Court of Appeals, spent her summer at the Economic Crimes Unit at the Miami-Dade State Attorney's Office, and is currently externing at the Securities and Exchange Commission in the Division of Enforcement. Jessica earned her Bachelors of Science majoring in Political Science and English at Florida State University.