Trial Advocacy

National Trial Team

Catholic Law's National Trial Team has been recognized as among the best in the nation. The 2019 National Trial Competition Champions were Catholic Law evening students, Vania Smith '20 and Jennifer Brooker '20. The two were coached by National Trial Team directors John N. Sharifi and Lindsey Cloud.

Moot Court Association

The Association is composed of second- and third-year students who share a strong interest in oral and written advocacy training in an appellate courtroom setting. The Columbus School of Law's Moot Court Association hosts three Moot Court competitions each year:

- Ellen A. (Nell) Hennessy Employee Benefits Moot Court Competition (2023 will be the 6th Annual)
- National Telecommunications and Technology Moot Court Competition (2023 will be the 29th Annual)
- The Seigenthaler-Sutherland Cup National First Amendment Moot Court Competition (2023 will be the 73rd Annual)

Journals

Catholic University Law Review

Founded in 1950, the Catholic University Law Review is the Columbus School of Law's oldest legal journal. Now in its 72nd year of publication, the Law Review is a student run scholarly journal that examines problems of current legal concern.

Catholic University Journal of Law and Technology

Founded in 1990, Catholic University Journal of Law and Technology (formerly known as The CommLaw Conspectus: Journal of Communications Law and Policy) publishes thoughtful, timely, and useful articles that discuss recent developments in communications law, information privacy law, and intellectual property law.
