2017 SQUIRE PATTON BOGGS PUBLIC POLICY FELLOWSHIP

What is the Squire Patton Boggs Public Policy Fellowship?

Using the attorney's fees earned from a successful pro bono case won by John Oberdorfer, Squire Patton Boggs, LLP established the Squire Patton Boggs Foundation to commemorate the retirement of founding partner James R. Patton, Jr. The Foundation annually grants several Public Policy Fellowships to exceptional law students who spend their summers working on public policy matters for a non-profit institution or a government agency.

The CUA student selected for the 2017 Squire Patton Boggs Public Policy Fellowship will be awarded $5,000 for unpaid work in the summer of 2017.

Am I eligible?

Students currently enrolled in the Columbus School of Law and not graduating this spring or summer are eligible. The student must have been offered a position doing policy work at a non-profit institution or a government agency. The summer position need not be in the Washington, D.C. area or in the United States.

How do I apply?

Applicants must submit the attached application along with a copy of their résumé and list of references to Deb Zimmer, Manager of Legal Recruitment for the Office of Career and Professional Development, by 12:00pm on Thursday, March 23. Applications without the required attachments will be removed from consideration. A selection committee will review the applications and select the recipient.

An applicant will be evaluated on his/her demonstrated commitment to public policy, the legal experience to be gained from the position, and his/her personal statement.

What if I have applied for a SPIL or other stipend?

Should you be selected for a SPIL or other stipend, you must forfeit those awards in order to be the recipient of the Squire Patton Boggs Public Policy Fellowship.
