Professional Responsibility pitfalls for beginning practitioners and how they’re handled differently by big law, government, and small practice. Special focus this year on social media pitfalls.

Attendance at this program qualifies for Professional Conduct Education credit.
As a reminder, as provided in our Rules of Professional Conduct, each student must earn six professional conduct education credits (sometimes generally referred to as “ethics credits” or “honors education”) prior to graduation by attending programs that offer such credit. Professional Conduct Education programs are designed to help you develop your awareness of ethical concerns in legal practice and the good judgment to address them as they arise.

Student Loan Relief Scholarship Contest

SoFi and the ABA are awarding THREE deserving ABA Members a life-changing opportunity by paying off a portion of his/her student debt! With student loan debt now reaching upwards of $1.5 trillion in the U.S., there’s never been a better way to help our valued ABA Members. Please answer the question: “How would an ABA/SoFi Student Loan Relief Scholarship impact your world?” in 500 words or less. All entrants will be evaluated by a panel of judges. If selected, finalists will be asked to provide additional information, at which point their applications will be judged by a panel comprising of ABA Members and staff. The panel will select one grand prize winner and two runners-up. Enter yourself today or click here share the contest. Deadline: February 29th, 2020.

Entrants Must

- be twenty-one (21) years of age or older at the time of entry
- have completed college (no longer enrolled)
- be a legal U.S. citizen or permanent resident
