- 26 Participants who have completed Evidence, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, and Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process and a minimum of 41 credit hours may be certified under the Student Practice Rule of the District of Columbia to represent clients in court. Upper-class students who do not meet the certification requirements can still take this course.

Spring 2023 Upper Divisions Courses

- 27 Enrolled students are expected to spend a minimum of 20 hours weekly on clinic work, including instructional time.
- 28 This course will meet for only the second half of the semester.
- 29 This course will meet for only the first half of the semester.
- 30 This course is graded on a pass/fail basis.
- 31 Participants must be eligible for certification under the Maryland Student Practice rule. Please see Experiential Learning Director for details.
- 32 With faculty permission, students may opt to take this course pass/fail. The selection of this option must be made by the end of the add/drop period. Please e-mail the registrar to select this option; failure to exercise an option by the deadline will result in default to a letter grade.
- 33 Evening students may enroll on a space available basis. Please see the appropriate instructor(s) for approval.
- 34 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Writing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 35 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Editing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 36 Successful completion of this course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 37 This course will meet the following five Saturdays over the course of the Spring semester: January 14 & 28, February 11 & 25, March 18.
- 38 Directed Research may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements. It is a two-credit course that may be completed in one or two semesters, at the option of the instructor.
- 39 Prerequisites: Constitutional Law I and Constitutional Law II.
- 40 Students who enroll in either the Families and the Law Clinic or Immigrant & Refugee Advocacy Clinic should keep their Thursdays clear for the scheduling of court hearings and other clinic-related activities.
- 41 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their third year. Evening students may take the class during their third or fourth year.
- 42 This course is offered as a one-credit, pass/fail seminar. All students who enroll in this course must also enroll in Legal Externship to obtain two or three credits for fieldwork. Students who are enrolling in their first externship for credit must enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars during the same semester as the fieldwork.
- 43 This section is for students enrolling in their first externship. Students should register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship and must also enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the online Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.

Spring 2023 Upper Divisions Courses

- 44 This course fulfills a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.
- 45 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their second year. Evening students may take this class in their third year. Students taking Becoming a Public Policy Lawyer must also register for a Legal Externship for two or three credits or for one of the live-client clinical courses (Families and the Law Clinic, Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Clinic, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Criminal Defense Clinic, D.C. Modern Prosecution Program or Criminal Prosecution Clinic).
- 46 This course can fulfill one of the two upper-division writing requirements and a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.
- 47 Reserved.
- 48 Clinic classes will mainly meet on Tuesday and Thursday for the first half of the semester.
- 49 Reserved.
- 50 Please see course description for further details regarding this optional additional credit.
- 51 For non-Securities program students, this is an exam course. For those students, this course does not satisfy the upper-level writing requirement. Only students in the Securities Institute or concentration may be given a portfolio writing option. Those selecting the writing option would also take the exam, but it would count proportionally less toward the final grade.
- 52 Prerequisite: Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process. Recommended for students to have completed, or take concurrently, the Criminal Procedure: Post Investigative Process course.
- 53 Students in this course will receive one grade after the completion of the Spring 2023 semester. In addition, this course, unlike past years, cannot be used as a substitute for Becoming a Lawyer (for externship takers).
- 54 Students must be eligible under the Virginia Student Practice rule. Please see Professor Kurth for details.
- 55 For students required to take a bar preparation course, the Multistate Performance Test Preparation course does not meet this requirement. You must take the Applied Legal Studies class.
- 56 This section is for students in their second or greater for-credit externship. Students in this section do not register for Becoming a Lawyer, however, they are required to meet with the Experiential Learning Director twice during the semester. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.
- 57 Reserved.
- 58 This course will fulfill the transition-to-practice requirement if taken in conjunction with Immigration Law: Employment, Family & Naturalization.
- 59 This course is contingent on enrollment of 8 or more students.
- 60 Reserved.

Spring 2023 Upper Divisions Courses

- 61 Students who have previously taken this course in Rome are prohibited from taking this class again in Washington.
- 62 Reserved.
- 63 This course will meet Monday through Friday for the first two weeks of the semester and the last week of the semester. In between, students will have remote individual meetings with Ambassador Brownback.
- 64 This class meets for the first time on Monday, March 13, 2023
- 65 Reserved.
