- 32 With faculty permission, students may opt to take this course pass/fail. The selection of this option must be made by the end of the add/drop period.

Spring 2022 Upper Divisions Courses

Please e-mail the registrar to select this option; failure to exercise an option by the deadline will result in default to a letter grade.

- 33 Evening students may enroll on a space available basis. Please see the appropriate instructor(s) for approval.
- 34 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Writing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 35 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Editing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 36 Successful completion of this course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 37 This course will meet the following five Saturdays over the course of the Spring semester:
- 38 Directed Research may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements. It is a two-credit course that may be completed in one or two semesters, at the option of the instructor.
- 39 Prerequisites: Constitutional Law I and Constitutional Law II.
- 40 Students who enroll in either the Families and the Law Clinic or Immigrant & Refugee Advocacy Clinic should keep their Thursdays clear for the scheduling of court hearings and other clinic-related activities.
- 41 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their third year. Evening students may take the class during their third or fourth year.
- 42 This course is offered as a one-credit, pass/fail seminar. All students who enroll in this course must also enroll in Legal Externship to obtain two or three credits for fieldwork. Students who are enrolling in their first externship for credit must enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars during the same semester as the fieldwork.
- 43 This section is for students enrolling in their first externship. Students should register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship and must also enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the online Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.
- 44 This course fulfills a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.
- 45 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their second year. Evening students may take this class in their third year. Students taking Becoming a Public Policy Lawyer must also register for a Legal Externship for two or three credits or for one of the live-client clinical courses (Families and the Law Clinic, Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Clinic, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Veterans Advocacy and Estate Planning Clinic or Criminal Prosecution Clinic).
- 46 This course can fulfill one of the two upper-division writing requirements and a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.
- 47 Reserved.

Spring 2022 Upper Divisions Courses

- 48 Clinic classes will mainly meet on Tuesday and Thursday for the first half of the semester.
- 49 This course will be offered in a remote, asynchronous format. This means there will be no scheduled classes in the course, with one kind of exception (please see below). There will also be no required texts. All of the materials required for this course - including written materials, audio recordings of lectures, and quizzes - will be available on the course TWEN site. Students will have the flexibility to take the course at their own pace and in their own time during the semester. The grade for the course will come predominantly from a take-home final examination. Students who enroll in the course will be provided a detailed and specific description of the tasks required of them in the course before the law school's add/drop deadline.
- In order to comply with Department of Education regulations regarding distance education courses, this course will have some number of scheduled sessions that will be conducted live and remote. There are likely to be fewer than a half dozen of such sessions. They will not involve the presentation of any doctrinal material not already offered in the course in an asynchronous and online fashion. They will primarily provide the opportunity for students to ask questions about the covered material, to together analyze review questions and practice hypotheticals, and to facilitate group discussion about course content. These sessions will be optional in terms of student attendance and they will be recorded and posted on the course TWEN site for possible viewing by students unable to attend. These sessions, when scheduled, will be scheduled on a Wednesday between 4:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. You may, at your discretion, enroll in another course that is scheduled for that same time.
- 50 Please see course description for further details regarding this optional additional credit.
- 51 For non-Securities program students, this is an exam course. For those students, this course does not satisfy the upper-level writing requirement. Only students in the Securities Institute or concentration may be given a portfolio writing option. Those selecting the writing option would also take the exam, but it would count proportionally less toward the final grade.
- 52 Prerequisite: Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process. Recommended for students to have completed, or take concurrently, the Criminal Procedure: Post Investigative Process course.
- 53 In the Spring of 2022, each of the six instructors in the Applied Legal Studies course will have the option of teaching their segment(s) of the course in the format which they prefer. While at least the Torts segment of the course will be offered in a remote, asynchronous format (meaning that for this segment of the course there will be no scheduled classes; all of the materials required for the segment - including written materials, audio recordings of lectures, and quizzes - will be available on the course TWEN site and students will have the flexibility to take this segment at their own pace and in their own time during the semester), it is anticipated that the majority of the segments of the course will be offered in a live and remote format.
- 54 Students must be eligible under the Virginia Student Practice rule. Please see Professor Kurth for details.
- 55 For students required to take a bar preparation course, the Multistate Performance Test Preparation course does not meet this requirement. You must take the Applied Legal Studies class.
- 56 This section is for students in their second or greater for-credit externship. Students in this section do not register for Becoming a Lawyer, however, they are required to meet with the Experiential Learning Director twice during the semester. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.
- 57 Reserved.
- 58 This course will fulfill the transition-to-practice requirement if taken in conjunction with Immigration Law: Deportation & Asylum.

Spring 2022 Upper Divisions Courses

- 59 This course is contingent on enrollment of 8 or more students.
- 60 This course will also meet on one Saturday over the course of the Spring 2020 semester.
- 61 Students who have previously taken this course in Rome are prohibited from taking this class again in Washington.
- 62 This class meets for the first time on Thursday, February 18, 2021
- 63 This class meets for the first time on Tuesday, February 23, 2021
- 64 This class meets for the first time on Monday, March 1, 2021
- 65 This section of Trial Practice is intended only for students who plan to be on campus in the Spring.
