- 36 Successful completion of this course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 37 This course will meet the following five Saturdays over the course of the Spring semester: January 17 & 31, February 14 & 28, March 21.
- 38 Directed Research may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements. It is a two-credit course that may be completed in one or two semesters, at the option of the instructor.
- 39 Prerequisites: Constitutional Law: Structure, Separation of Powers, Federalism and Constitutional Law: Individual Rights and Liberties.
- 40 Students who enroll in either the Families and the Law Clinic or Immigrant & Refugee Advocacy Clinic should keep their Thursdays clear for the scheduling of court hearings and other clinic-related activities.

41 Reserved.

42 This course is offered as a one credit, pass/fail seminar. All students who enroll in this course must also enroll in Legal Externship to obtain two or three credits for fieldwork. Students who are enrolling in their first externship for credit must enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars during the same semester as the fieldwork.

43 Students enrolling in their first externship should register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship and must also enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars. Students in their second or greater externship should only register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship. "Second or greater" students will have periodic written reflection assignments and may meet with Prof. Ross during the course of the semester. In order to register for Legal Externship credits, students must complete an application through careers.law.edu. Please see the Legal Externship website for details. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship, and must submit a Learning Agreement signed by your supervisor before the end of the add/drop period.

44 This course fulfills a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.

45 This hybrid course will meet five Saturdays over the course of the Spring semester: January 10 (in person), January 17 (remote), January 24 (remote), February 21 (remote) and February 28 (remote).

46 This course can fulfill one of the two upper-division writing requirements and a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.

47 Reserved.

48 Clinic classes will mainly meet on Tuesday and Thursday for the first half of the semester.

49 This course will be remote except for the first class session and the project presentations at the conclusion of the semester.

50 It is anticipated that this course will be more in-person at the beginning of the semester and then have more remote sessions towards the middle and latter portion of the semester (approximately half remote sessions in total).

51 Students in this course have the option of writing a qualifying course paper to fulfill one-half of the upper-level writing requirement or write shorter papers which will not fulfill any portion of the upper-level writing requirement.

52 Prerequisite: Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process. Recommended for students to have completed, or take concurrently, the Criminal Procedure: Post Investigative Process course.

53 This course will meet five Saturdays over the course of the Spring semester: March 21, March 28, April 11, April 18 and April 25.

54 The US/Mexico border immigration legal services trip takes place from Sunday, March 8, 2026 through Friday, March 13, 2026. Please contact Professor Dyer (dyerj@cua.edu) or Professor Brustin (brustin@cua.edu) with questions or an expression of interest.

55 This hybrid course begins on Monday, February 16th. It will have four in-person (on-campus) Monday/Wednesday class meetings from February 16th through February 25th. It will then have ten remote (via Zoom) Monday/Wednesday class meetings from Monday, March 2nd through Wednesday, April 8th. An exam will follow approximately one week after the last class session on April 8th.

56 Reserved.

57 This course requires students to dedicate time working on client issues beyond the class session meetings noted on the schedule.

58 Reserved.

59 This course is contingent on enrollment of 8 or more students.
