*J.D. students are limited to one course for the Summer term. With permission, a student may supplement this one course with a Directed Research project or externship credits (including the Becoming a Lawyer course for first-time externship takers).

 Please note: Although May 27, 2021 is the official last day to add a summer course, students are asked to register prior to the first day of class, May 24, 2021, and be prepared to attend the first class session. Failure to attend a course for the first week of a seven week course is not permitted.

Assuming COVID classroom occupancy restrictions are still in place for the Summer 2021 term, priority for on campus seating will be based on registration date and time (first come, first served).

Footnotes

1. Writing Course. Successful completion of this course will satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements.
2. If this is your first externship at the Law School, you must sign up for both Becoming a Lawyer and Legal Externship. If you have already completed an externship at the Law School (and thus have already taken Becoming a Lawyer), you should only register for Legal Externship. All externship work hours used toward meeting the 120 or 180 hour requirement must be completed by July 31, 2021. Visiting students are allowed to enroll in the externship classes only with the permission of the Academic Dean of the student's own law school, our Assistant Dean and our Director of Experiential Learning.
3. Student/advising faculty member must submit Directed Research form by May 24, 2021. If the project is approved by the Associate Dean, the registrar will then give the student permission to register within Cardinal Students.
4. Limited to 18 students.
5. This course may fulfill one of the two upper-level writing requirements (practice oriented) and 3 credits of the Experiential Learning Requirement.
6. Selected students only.
7. This is an "online" Becoming a Lawyer class. There will not be a weekly meeting at the Law School. However, the professor may schedule an in-class presentation session.
8. Students who are in their second or greater externship (for credit) do not take Becoming a Lawyer. However, these students are required to attend meetings with Law School supervised fieldwork instructors.
9. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the on-line Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website:

<https://www.law.edu/academics/legal-externships-and-clinics/externships/legal%20externship%20application.html>

Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.

10. This course can be used to partially satisfy the Experiential Learning Requirement.
11. This course is limited to 3 students and requires registration approval. If interested, please contact Stuart Schept at schept@law.edu.
12. This course fulfills the transition-to-practice portion of the Experiential Learning Requirement.
