37		Reserved.
38		Directed Research may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements. It is a two-credit course that may be completed in one or two semesters, at the option of the instructor.
39		Prerequisites: Constitutional Law I and Constitutional Law II.
40		Students who enroll in either the Families and the Law Clinic or Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Clinic should keep their Thursdays clear for the scheduling of court hearings and other clinic-related activities.
41		This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their third year. Evening students may take the class during their third or fourth year.
42		This course is offered as a one-credit, pass/fail seminar. All students who enroll in this course must also enroll in Legal Externship to obtain two or three credits for fieldwork. Students who are enrolling in their first externship for credit must enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars during the same semester as the fieldwork.
43		Students enrolling in their first externship should register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship and must also enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars. Students in their second or greater externship should only register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship. "Second or greater" students will be required to meet with Paul Kurth twice during the course of the semester. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the online Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: https://law-cua-csm.simplicity.com/ . 		Externship for two or three credits or for one of the live-client clinical courses (Families and the Law Clinic, Immigrant & Refugee Advocacy Clinic, Veterans Advocacy & Estate Planning Clinic, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Criminal Prosecution Clinic or D.C. Law Students in Court).
46		This course can fulfill one of the two upper-division writing requirements and a portion of the Experiential Learning Req.
47		Reserved.
48		Limited to an aggregate total of 8 students in all sections of CCLS: Low Income Tax Clinic
49		Required of all second year full-time students.
50		Please see course description for further details regarding this optional additional credit.
51		For non-Securities program students, this is an exam course. For those students, this course does not satisfy the upper-level writing requirement. Only students in the Securities Institute or concentration may be given a portfolio writing option. Those selecting the writing option would also take the exam, but it would count proportionally less toward the final grade.
52		Prerequisite: Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process. Recommended for students to have completed, or take concurrently, the Criminal Procedure: Post Investigative Process course.
53		Reserved.
54		Students should be prepared to attend the mandatory orientation (scheduled for August 12-16; 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.).
55		This course fulfills the transition-to-practice requirement if taken in a student's third or fourth year and if taken in conjunction with Immigration Law: Employment, Family and Naturalization.
56		This course is an on-line course run by the Antonin Scalia School of Law at George Mason University. Tuition is paid as normal to Catholic University.
57		This course will be taught by Professor Robert Destro. As was announced last June (https://communications.catholic.edu/news/2018/06/destro-appointment.html), Prof. Destro has been nominated by President Trump to serve as Assistant Secretary of State for Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor. This position requires formal confirmation by the United States Senate. The timing of the United States Senate consideration of the confirmation of Prof. Destro is uncertain. Federal Government rules prohibit Prof. Destro from simultaneously serving in this government position and also being actively employed by the University (and thus the Law School). This raises the possibility of some disruption of this course during the Fall semester. While Prof. Destro and the Law School will do what we can to minimize this disturbance, if Prof. Destro is in fact confirmed by the U.S. Senate before the conclusion of the Fall semester, there inevitably remains an irreducible risk that some
