Spring 2020 Upper Divisions Courses

- 13 Qualifying course paper.
- 14 Approved topic registration for Directed Research must be submitted to the Academic Dean's office, Room 343, no later than the last day of the add/drop period.
- 15 Students seeking to participate in more than one clinical program per semester must have the permission of the Director of Experiential Education. Some of these clinical offerings are only possible for students who can participate during the day.
- 16 Open only to selected students.
- 17 Open only to selected students. A pre-application is required. For more information, please contact the following individuals: for the CCLS clinics - Prof. Paul Kurth, CCLS Managing Attorney; for the Criminal Prosecution Clinic and D.C. Law Students in Courts - Director of Experiential Learning; for the S.E.C. Student Honors Program - Prof. David Lipton.
- 18 Some writing in this course may be used to satisfy one or more of the three products required for the Applied Legal Writing Portfolio option of the upper-level writing requirement.
- 19 Students who have previously taken the National Security Law and Policy course cannot also take the Foreign Relations and National Security Law class, and vice-versa.
- 20 Enrollment in this course is limited to students who have satisfactorily completed a minimum of six credits of CCLS: Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Clinic. Registration in this course requires prior approval of Professor Brustin.
- 21 Enrollment in this course is limited to students who have satisfactorily completed a minimum of six credits of CCLS: Families & the Law Clinic. Registration in this course requires prior approval of Professor Klein.
- 22 This course is restricted to Master of Legal Studies students in their final semester.
- 23 Please see the Experiential Education Director (Clinic offices) or Professor Lipton for details regarding application deadlines. Meets at S.E.C. S.E.C. classroom lectures are mandatory for any first time Honors Program participant. The S.E.C. will notify students of the schedule of these lectures. Students are also required to meet with Paul Kurth twice during the course of the semester.

- 25 Preference will be given to evening division students.
- 26 Participants who have completed Evidence, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, and Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process and a minimum of 41 credit hours may be certified under the Student Practice Rule of the District of Columbia to represent clients in court. Upper-class students who do not meet the certification requirements can still take this course.
- 27 Enrolled students are expected to spend a minimum of 20 hours weekly on clinic work, including instructional time.
- 28 This course will meet for only the second half of the semester.
- 29 This course will meet for only the first half of the semester.

Spring 2020 Upper Divisions Courses

- 30 This course is graded on a pass/fail basis.
- 31 Participants must be eligible for certification under the Maryland Student Practice rule. Please see Experiential Learning Director for details.
- 32 With faculty permission, students may opt to take this course pass/fail. The selection of this option must be made by the end of the add/drop period. Please e-mail the registrar to select this option; failure to exercise an option by the deadline will result in default to a letter grade.
- 33 Evening students may enroll on a space available basis. Please see the appropriate instructor(s) for approval.
- 34 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Writing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 35 This course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements; however, a student may not count both this course and the Law Journal Editing course toward the fulfillment of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 36 Successful completion of this course may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements.
- 37 Reserved.
- 38 Directed Research may satisfy one of the two upper-level writing requirements. It is a two-credit course that may be completed in one or two semesters, at the option of the instructor.
- 39 Prerequisites: Constitutional Law I and Constitutional Law II.
- 40 Students who enroll in either the Families and the Law Clinic or Immigrant & Refugee Advocacy Clinic should keep their Thursdays clear for the scheduling of court hearings and other clinic-related activities.
- 41 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their third year. Evening students may take the class during their third or fourth year.
- 42 This course is offered as a one-credit, pass/fail seminar. All students who enroll in this course must also enroll in Legal Externship to obtain two or three credits for fieldwork. Students who are enrolling in their first externship for credit must enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars during the same semester as the fieldwork.
- 43 This section is for students enrolling in their first externship. Students should register for 2 or 3 credits of Legal Externship and must also enroll in one of the Becoming a Lawyer seminars. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the online Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.
- 44 This course fulfills a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.
- 45 This course is required for students who are in the Law and Public Policy Program. Day students must take this class during their second year. Evening students may take this class in their third year. Students taking Becoming a Public Policy Lawyer must also register for a Legal Externship for two or three credits or for one of the live-client clinical courses (Families and the Law Clinic, Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Clinic, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Veterans Advocacy and Estate Planning Clinic or Criminal Prosecution Clinic).

Spring 2020 Upper Divisions Courses

46 This course can fulfill one of the two upper-division writing requirements and a portion of the Experiential Learning requirement.

47 Reserved.

48 Limited to an aggregate total of 8 students in all sections of CCLS: Low Income Tax Clinic

49 Reserved.

50 Please see course description for further details regarding this optional additional credit.

51 For non-Securities program students, this is an exam course. For those students, this course does not satisfy the upper-level writing requirement. Only students in the Securities Institute or concentration may be given a portfolio writing option. Those selecting the writing option would also take the exam, but it would count proportionally less toward the final grade.

52 Prerequisite: Criminal Procedure: The Investigative Process. Recommended for students to have completed, or take concurrently, the Criminal Procedure: Post Investigative Process course.

53 Reserved.

54 Students must be eligible under the Virginia Student Practice rule. Please see Professor Kurth for details.

55 For students required to take a bar preparation course, the Multistate Performance Test Preparation course does not meet this requirement. You must take the Applied Legal Studies class.

56 This section is for students in their second or greater for-credit externship. Students in this section do not register for Becoming a Lawyer, however, they are required to meet with Paul Kurth twice during the semester. Prior to registering for Legal Externship credits, students must complete the Legal Externship Placement Approval Form, located on the following website: <https://law-cua-csm.symplicity.com/>. Once your externship is approved, you will be given permission within Cardinal Students to register for the 2 or 3 credit Legal Externship.

57 This course will be taught by Professor Robert Destro. As was announced last June (<https://communications.catholic.edu/news/2018/06/destro-appointment.html>), Prof. Destro has been nominated by President Trump to serve as Assistant Secretary of State for Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor. This position requires formal confirmation by the United States Senate. The timing of the United States Senate consideration of the confirmation of Prof. Destro is uncertain. Federal Government rules prohibit Prof. Destro from simultaneously serving in this government position and also being actively employed by the University (and thus the Law School). This raises the possibility of some disruption of this course during the Spring semester. While Prof. Destro and the Law School will do what we can to minimize this disturbance, if Prof. Destro is in fact confirmed by the U.S. Senate before the conclusion of the Spring semester, there inevitably remains an irreducible risk that some disruption will nevertheless occur.

58 This course will fulfill the transition-to-practice requirement if taken in a student's third or fourth year and if taken in conjunction with Immigration Law: Deportation & Asylum.

59 This course is contingent on enrollment of 10 or more students.

Spring 2020 Upper Divisions Courses

- 60 This course will also meet on one Saturday over the course of the Spring 2020 semester.
- 61 Students who have previously taken this course in Rome are prohibited from taking this class again in Washington.
